

CADDY

MOVE IN COMFORT

It's more than a name. It's how we want every woman to feel.

THE STORY BEHIND CADDY

I heard it over and over, from friends, from mums: women who felt limited by their gym wear before they'd even started their workout.

That's when it clicked. It's not enough to just inspire women to get to the gym. If you're not giving them something that actually works for their body and how they move, you're only solving half the problem.

So instead of just chasing “gym wear,” I went back to what I personally look for every time I choose something to work out in, and I wrote it all down. That list became the foundation of the brand:

Comfort — because you shouldn't have to think about your outfit while you train

Confidence — knowing you look and feel good, every rep

Garments that move with your body — not against it

A daily go-to — not just for the gym, but for your whole day

I also considered women who prefer more coverage in their gym wear: extra coverage, inseam length, whatever fits their own reasons for wanting it.

I'm doing this for my fellow women. No one should have an excuse not to exercise because of what she has to wear. Caddy Move in Comfort is that solution.

OUR MISSION

To create high-quality gym wear that works for every woman's body and how she moves, so she can train, travel, and live her day in comfort and confidence, with no excuses.

OUR VISION

A world where every woman feels comfortable, confident, and unstoppable in what she wears, whether she's training, traveling, or simply going about her day.

OUR VALUES

Quality First

Good quality fabric is where everything starts. Every piece is made to feel great, hold its shape, and last through every squat, stretch, and step.

Timeless Style

Clean, versatile designs that look as good at the coffee shop as they do in the gym, and never go out of season.

Customer Care

Every woman who wears Caddy matters. We listen, we design around real needs, and we want you to feel looked after.

Community

Caddy is built with and for women who support each other. Confidence grows when we move together.

Comfort. Confidence. Caddy.
